

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

LUCY KUBISZYN, EDITOR

APRIL 18, 1983

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Record Series

File: EG 1-12-51

Date: 9-28-95

Campus Newspaper

TECHNICAL TALK

The Shelton State Technical Division's cafeteria will be closing April 29. There will be some type of food service provided but at the time we do not know just what. . . . The Local Hairdresser's Association is holding its monthly meeting next Monday night from 7 - 9 p.m. The cosmetology students will model the new spring trends, summer fashions and new clipper cuts. The cosmetology students are also busy planning a spring fashion show to be held in the Learning Resource Center building May 23. Competition among the students will be in three categories. They will be receiving trophies. Local beauty shop personnel will be attending the fashion show to review the student's work. A group of the cosmetology students will be attending the State Cosmetology Competition Show Sunday and Monday at the Civic Center in Birmingham. . . . Dewayne Anderson, graduate of Machine Shop 1982, was killed in a car wreck Saturday, April 9, 1983. The Machine Shop regrets to hear this sad news.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The 47th annual Fire College Week will be held April 18 - 22 at the Fire College. Subjects covered this year will again include classroom theory in Fire Behavior, Ventilation, Fire Streams and Self-contained Breathing Apparatus. Drill field subjects will be Combating Live Class "B" Fires, Handling Ladders, Handling Fire Streams and Using SCBA in Heavy Smoke. On Thursday we will burn a building at which time the theory and drill field training which has been presented during the previous days will be applied.

DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS' BOWL COMPETITION SCHEDULED

The district competition for the Alabama High School Scholars' Bowl will be held at Shelton State on Wednesday, April 20, from 9 - 11 a.m. The winners from the local competitions at Brewer State Junior College and Shelton State Community College will play the best two out of three rounds in their respective divisions. The winners will then go to the state competition on May 4 at University of Alabama/Birmingham. The teams competing are: 1A: Southern Academy, Pickens Academy--2A: Northside, Pickens County High--3A: Demopolis High School, Curry High School--4A: Tuscaloosa County High, Central High School.

WALK AMERICA '83 SCHEDULED

The March of Dimes Walk America '83 will be held on Saturday, April 29, beginning at the corner of Greensboro Ave. and ninth street. Sponsored by Bama Bino Pizza, Walk America raises money to help in the fight against birth defects. To enter, you must get someone to sponsor you for walking 18 kilometers by giving you a donation. You need to get the money as you get your sponsors. If you are interested in walking, contact Cheree Causey at Shelton State or call the March of Dimes office, 752-4555.

INHERIT THE WIND COMES TO BAMA

The Tuscaloosa Community Players in conjunction with Shelton State Community College will present their final production of the year, "Inherit the Wind," on April 28, 29, and 30 and May 1. This powerful drama may be the production of the year, according to Paul Looney, artistic director of TCP. Performances will be at 8 p.m. on the 28, 29, and 30 and 2:30 p.m. on May 1.

THE LIBRARY WILL HAVE FOUR PERSONAL COMPUTERS AVAILABLE FOR DEMONSTRATION ON WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, FROM 9 A.M. - 2 P.M. STOP BY IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT COMPUTERS.

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL SCHEDULE FOR WEEK

Shelton's women's softball team will play Livingston University in Livingston on Monday, April 18. On Wednesday, April 20, the team travels to Auburn to play Auburn University. On Thursday, April 21, the team plays Wallace Junior College at Bowers Park at 3 p.m.

DANCE FOR HEART

The American Heart Association will begin a Dance for Heart contest beginning April 18. If you are interested in learning more about the Dance for Heart, contact Cheree Causey at the Junior College.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR GED GRADUATES

Scholarships to attend Shelton State Community College and C.A. Fredd Technical College are available for Fall quarter, and the recipients will be presented with the scholarships at the GED graduation on June 2. These scholarships are being given by the Aglaia Junior Women's Club, The Pilot Club of Tuscaloosa, Shelton State Community College and Gulf States Paper Corp.

If you are interested in applying for a scholarship to attend one of these schools, stop by Dean Umphrye's office for a form. All applications must be returned by May 2. GED graduates presently enrolled in Shelton State Community College or C.A. Fredd will also be considered for scholarships. Final selections will be made by the GED Merit Scholarship Committee.

SHELTON'S SCHOLARS' BOWL TEAM COMPETES AT UAB

Shelton State's Scholars' Bowl team competed in the University of Alabama/Birmingham Junior College Scholars' Bowl competition Wednesday, April 13. The 14 junior college teams were divided by random into two divisions. The winners of each division, as determined by total points, then played for the championship. Shelton State came in second in their division but scored more points than the winners of the other division. "Point-wise, we came in second or third," said Diane Layton, chairman of Shelton Scholars' Bowl team. Shelton's Barry Abston from Pickens County won a half-year tuition and fees scholarship to UAB for being one of the top five scorers in the competition. Layton added that the whole team was especially proud of his selection.

Members of Shelton's team include Abston, Jane Couto, Jeffrey Edwards, James Hamilton, Robert Hudson (captain), Richard Powell, Donna Rogers, and Brian Wood. We are especially proud of them, said Layton.

Future scholars' bowl competition will be held at Faulkner State Junior College on April 28 and the University of Alabama on May 13.

THE SHELTON'S MEN'S SOFTBALL TEAM WILL PLAY ON MONDAY, APRIL 18, AT 6 A.M. AT EXCHANGE PARK AND ON WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, AT 8 P.M. AT INGRAM FIELD.

SUPPORT STAFF TO SPONSOR GARAGE AND BAKE SALE

Shelton's Support Staff is sponsoring a garage and bake sale on Saturday, April 30, in the parking lot of the Junior College Division. All proceeds will go to the Belinda Hughes Memorial Scholarship Fund. If you have anything you would like to donate, contact one of the support staff members as soon as possible. Please have all items priced and clothes sized. A truck will be available to pick up any large items.

SHELTON STUDENTS HOLD JOINT PIANO RECITAL

Patricia Stewart and Van Essary will perform in a joint piano recital on Sunday, April 24, at 3 p.m. in the music room of the Junior College. Stewart is a member of the Shelton Singers, Phi Theta Kappa, and was Shelton's representative in the Most Outstanding Student Contest at the Alabama Junior-Community College convention in Birmingham. She plans to attend the University of Alabama next year and major in music management. She is the daughter of Leonard and Mattie Ruth Stewart.

Essary is attending Shelton on a music scholarship and has recently been awarded a piano scholarship to Sanford University in Birmingham. He is president of the Shelton Singers and plans to major in music education. He is the son of Alvin and Jane Essary. Both are students of Syble Coats.

Tap Dancing by Susan Looney. Begins on Saturday, May 7, from 2 - 3 p.m. and will continue through June 25.

Aerobic dancing by Amy Trice and Cheree Causey. Begins April 18 for six weeks.